AMERICAN NICKEL WORKS,

Camden, N. J. Oct 21 1867

Hon Daniel M Fox Supt U. S. Mint

Dear Sir

Answering your letter of 18th inst. in which you request that instead of filling your order for 50,000 lbs. of rough nickel cupon blanks @ 34 6/10 cts. per lb. I should deliver the same quantity cleaned and milled at the advance of 2 6/10 cts per lb. which was set in my bid of 8th inst., I have to say that I will agree to make this change upon the condition which we established yesterday in conversation; namely that the rough or uncleaned blanks which had been shipped before receipt of your said letter (all of which are included in the bill sent herewith) shall be paid for, and that at some mutually convenient time when you no longer feel the need of them as a reserve I shall remove from the Mint so many of those rough blanks as shall then remain unused and deliver instead an equal weight of milled and cleaned blanks, charging the Mint 2 6/10 cts per lb for the exchange

Yours truly
Joseph Wharton

Hon. Daniel M. Fox, Supt. U.S. Mint

Dear Sir

Answering your letter of 18th inst. in which you request that instead of filling your order for 50,000 lbs. of rough nickel copper blanks @ 34 8/10 cts. per lb. I should deliver the same quantity cleaned and milled at the advance of 2 6/10 cts. per lb. which was set in my bid of 8th inst., I have to say that I will agree to make this change upon the condition which we established yesterday in conversation: namely that the rough or uncleaned blanks which had been shipped before receipt of your said letter (all of which an included in the bill not herewith) shall be paid for, and that at some mutually convenient time when you no longer feel the need of them as a reserve I shall remove from the Mint so many of those rough blanks as shall there remain unused and deliver instead an equal weight of milled and cleaned blanks, charging the Mint 2 6/10 cts. per lb. for the exchange.
